

53C-5-101 Management of range resources.

- (1) The director is responsible for the efficient management of all range resources on lands under the director's administration, consistent with his fiduciary duties of financial support to the beneficiaries.
- (2) This management shall be based on sound resource management principles.

Amended by Chapter 237, 2000 General Session